Sex Offender Registration and Tracking Overview

The Rabun County Sheriff's Office Sex Offender Registration and Tracking (SORT) Unit performs several duties involving registered sex offenders and sexual predators living and working in Rabun County. People who are convicted of certain crimes are required to register with the Sheriff's Office of the county in which they reside or are employed. The Sheriff's Office ensures that any known sex offender that lives or works in the county registers with the Sheriff's Office within the allotted time frame required by Georgia Law. The Sheriff's Office also checks residences and employment locations of the sex offenders to ensure that they are in compliance with Georgia Law.

Sex Offender Registration Policy

Anyone who is a sex offender and is required to register with the Rabun County Sheriff's Office must report to the below location in accordance with Georgia Law.

The sex offender needs to bring with them some form of photo identification and have all the required information with them. Failure to report to the Rabun County Sheriff's Office within the required times, as stated by law, may cause a criminal action to be taken. Furthermore, failure to report at the established times set by the Rabun County Sheriff's Office or failure to produce the required documentation or information at the time of reporting to the Rabun County Sheriff's Office may also cause criminal action to be taken. These times set forth by the Rabun County Sheriff's Office meet the time requirements of Georgia Law.
